

UNDERSTANDING THE PROCESS FOR CO-CONSTRUCTION OF THE REFORM

The programme to renovate the French social model was one of Emmanuel Macron's campaign promises. The President of the Republic and the Government have implemented an unprecedented framework for consultation and have initiated strong dialogue with trade unions.

■ STRENGTHEN SOCIAL DIALOGUE

1

Meetings with social partners at the Elysée

Meetings with social partners at Matignon in the presence of Edouard Philippe and Muriel Pénicaud

06 JUNE:

Press conference and presentation of the work programme by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Labour.

2

Meetings with the Minister of Labour regarding the three themes of the Reform

AUGUST:

Final consultations with social partners

FROM 09 JUNE TO 23 JUNE:

TOPIC:
Coordination of negotiation levels

FROM 26 JUNE TO 7 JULY:

TOPIC:
Economic and social dialogue

FROM 10 TO 21 JULY:

TOPIC:
Safeguarding labour relations

14 JUNE:

Submission of the enabling bill to the Council of State.

28 JUNE:

Presentation of the enabling bill to the Council of Ministers.

JULY:

Parliament debate and vote on the enabling law: discussions in committees, examination in public session, etc.

3

Consultation with competent bodies

Economic, Social and Environmental Council (ESEC) in particular, joint institutions ... for opinions and observations on draft ordinances

Council of State's opinion on the ordinances.

Presentation and adoption of ordinances by the Council of Ministers.

4

Publication of ordinances in the Journal officiel (Official journal)

The ordinances become applicable

Ratification of ordinances

For each ordinance, a ratification bill must be submitted to the Parliament after publication in the Journal officiel, within a timeframe provided by the enabling law